Dear Brad:

The general public feels that society has too many attorneys, and perhaps we do. However, we don't have too many good ones; you fall into that much smaller number. Having worked as a legal assistant for many years, I am in the position to make this judgment. In addition, you do the following:

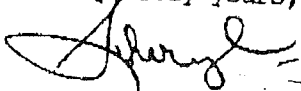

- Answer your phone calls;
- Support your client emotionally, even when they are being difficult;
- Do what you say you will;
- Obtain the best possible outcome in difficult situations.

All of the above definitely sets you apart from the majority, and I am sure I missed more than I have listed.

You have the unique ability to inspire confidence at a time when a person truly needs to believe that someone is in charge of the situation. Even better, you really are.

Saying thank you is not enough, but please accept the gratitude of myself and my husband for all of your help. If I can ever return the favor, do not hesitate to call.

Very truly yours,

Sheryl
