Brad was great to work with on my uncontested divorce. He is an efficient, no nonsense attorney interested in getting the job done fast and without exorbitant cost. I was able to get my divorce done without stepping foot in the courthouse, saving me time and money and allowing me to get on with my life, knowing he was on the paperwork on my behalf. I sincerely recommend Mr. Nance and I am so glad I went with having his assistance on this instead of filing on my own, which can end up being a nightmare.

Brad- Has been a Great Advocate on my case. If you need someone that you can Trust and also be willing to take a payment plan, as all of us know the expense of a good attorney, he is your man. He is very professional, to the point and will do what ever is needed to assist you in your case. He takes phone calls and text messages which is a plus. Thank you, Brad for everything that you did to escalate my divorce. Much appreciated.

Atty Brad Nance is an outstanding Lawyer hired by one of my family members who has already given a review. However, bc I had the privilege of communicating with him I wanted to write my own review about Atty Nance. He's the absolute best, most kind, and professional Atty I've known. He's a efficient and very effective in his work. He's a man of his word. We had no problems reaching him and felt very comfortable asking questions. Thank you so very much Atty Nance for putting credibility back into the legal profession. We will definitely be referring you on to others.

After I had spoke to 3 attorneys before Brad. I felt he was the best choice . His personality and demeanor was great . He listened to me and understood my needs . Then went beyond expectations for me . When it came to billing his prices was very reasonable and I was able to pay monthly overtime. He will have your back . Such a great practice and family oriented. He is the type of guy to walk into a angry court room and make them laugh in a good way . Then work it in your favor . I will always co.e back to him .

Brad is super professional, responsive and a time keeper. And cool manner! He resolved my long run divorce case very clearly whereas others saying negative things. He was the only one said "I can do it." and he just focused positive side and made it. He always finds a way getting things done.

I was very much appreciated and felt comfortable in his professional experienced responses.

"A good name is better than riches!" I simply came across Atty Brad Nance's name during my internet search and I can proudly add my voice to his good reviews. Before meeting him, I had thought my divorce case was too complicated but when I walked into his office, he assured me everything would go seamlessly within a very short time. He took care of everything completely!! The only part I took was to sign my part of the documents, attended the prove-up hearing and complied with our agreed payment plan (which is a great plus to his services). He surely knows his onions!

I would like to take this opportunity to recommend Brad Nance, Attorney. He is professional, knowledgeable of the Law and willing to go the extra mile to help. Case in point: My brother-in-law was on his deathbed with only days to live. He realized that he needed to make major changes to his original Will. Brad thoughtfully took time from his busy schedule to get the job efficiently handled - with little time to spare. This involved interrupting his scheduled appointments and court appearances to make this happen so that my brother-in-law could pass away in peace.

Additional experience: I was told from another lawyer that I needed legal assistance with getting deeds of buildings recorded with the County that were left to me by my Mother. I contacted Brad. He honorably and selflessly said that I did not need to spend money for a lawyer to handle, as I had all of the proper paperwork. I do not know another Attorney that would be as thoughtful, considerate, genuinely honest and fair. I have more legal matters that need attention and I would not consider using any other Lawyer. Brad Nance is a superior Attorney and exceptional human being.

I like this guy. It was a little late in my case but during my consultation he was right on point with every comment he made and totally got my story first time through.

Hopefully I won't need an attorney in the near future but if I do I would be extremely confident in this mans abilities. His presence was big and his experience obvious throughout the consultation and I felt heard and very much at ease. The rate he requested was quite reasonable as well. Thanks for your input Brad. You pointed out some key things I hadn't thought of. The consultation alone was a great benefit to me.

My husband hired this attorney about 4 years ago, he is the worst. He charged him $6000 for child custody and as we finished paying him all he did was sent out a letter to the woman. He did nothing to help us but take our money. Once we were done paying he said we had to continue paying $500 bi-weekly in order for him to proceed with the case. Which he clearly didn't do much for $6000 much less for $500. Do not go to this guy. He seems like he's only good at divorces but not for anything else

Great. Professional. I have used Brad 2 times now and all has been great. Professional legal counsel is never cheap. And some cases are sticky. Legal messes are never good. But, you can't expect someone else to pick up the tab for you. And, it is not the attorneys fault the opposing party became difficult and changed their mind.
